OVERVIEW BRIEF

Note, Moses had rightly assured them ins Deuteronomy 31:3, "The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said."

And the present inspired focus text showcased the clear fact that the Lord had completely fulfilled that which He had promised. Thus, from this proof text we are taught the vital lesson that when our spiritual assignments have been completed in an honorable fashion we can expectantly anticipate that the Lord delights in granting us rest from our hard periods of contentious trial and enduring (often prolonged) season of adversity.

Just as Scripture is emphatically frank about the keynote and priority requirements of our solemn duty and responsibility to worship and serve the Lord; it is equally full details in showcasing and explaining the accompanying heavenly blessings that are freely bestowed upon those who prove their love and devotion to Him.

In Psalms 37:3-4, the Word of God encouragingly assures us: "Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."
