

FRAGMENTS BS MINI-SERIES

BECOMING

elevated from the fearful heart posture of disillusionment and defeat, to perceive and embrace the higher spirit-life faith vision of triumphant expectancy.

SERIES OVERVIEW

The inspired narrative regarding Gideon reminds us of the need to develop in our "walk of faith." Now typically, rarely do we initially grasp the immense importance of this reality.

Yet, as shown in the initial insights conveyed in chapter six, at some point, likewise, we all begin where Gideon starts to comprehend the deeper purposes of the outworking of divine will.

Commonly, our natural perspective is narrowed to our local circle and our preoccupations are affixed on matters that are close at hand.

Seeing the "big picture" is of less importance to us as compared to the daily crisis of the moment.

Essentially, the Lord initially discovers most of us are in a place where we are "unavailable;" and we do not see our role in contributing to the advance of the cause of the Kingdom.

Can we thoroughly and accurately answer the question, "What does it mean to "seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness?"

Perhaps some of us will walk away with a hint of what the Lord is alluding to.

Nevertheless, as shown in the present life profile account of Gideon, we can rightly conclude that when the Sovereign will of God spotlights and focuses an individual it is a sure sign that the identified "earthen vessel" will become the object of the transforming grace of God.
